Hello Travellers

We would like to welcome you to our 2025 brochure, full of Go Beyond information, and of course, our new holidays.

2024 has been a fantastic year with so many wonderful destinations. From the Sahara in Morocco to Humpback whales in Iceland, the slopes in the French Alps to the racetrack in Monaco, and the sand on the Galician beaches to the fresh rivers of Scotland, we have had some amazing experiences. Our Travel Buddy scheme continues to grow with trips to Paris, Brussels, Vienna, Tenerife, and Romania, with UK visits to the Emmerdale set and two Abba themed nights out. If you have something on your bucket list of places to go, please get in touch.

This year has also seen us shortlisted in the 'Inclusivity Champion of the Year Award' by Aspire, sister publication to the travel industry magazine, Travel Weekly. Needless to say, that we are honoured to be shortlisted in the company of other icons of inclusivity, and fingers crossed, we go home with the award in October.

2024 has also seen us take action to tackle the Go Beyond carbon footprint. We have worked closely with a sustainability project in London to help us offset our footprint and in the future do what we can to reduce our emissions that contribute to climate change.

As for the holidays, we will leave it up to you to flick through them and see what you think. We sincerely hope to see you on one of these holidays or a Travel Buddy holiday in 2025.

With love

12th – 19th August 2025

We invite you to our first summer in the north-west of France, and the Celtic region of Brittany. We will be based in the beautiful, small central village of Mellionec, where we'll be staying in a large gite named A La Belle Etoile (The Beautiful Star). The gite was renovated in 2022 and was formerly an old presbytery but is now a beautiful and modern auberge, situated in this small, alternative and progressive community.

This holiday will be an exploration, delving into Breton culture with visits to the nearby 11th century Chateau de Josselin, a beautiful French chateau with 9 towers set along the Nantes-Brest canal. We will take the small train called the tire-bouchon (corkscrew) from Auray to the Quiberon peninsula and spend the day on the beach. Not far from Mellionec, we will visit a refuge for French wolves, a unique sanctuary that cares for these stunning animals. We will also take you down to the south Atlantic coast for a 2-hour boat trip up the river Odet and spend a day in the town of Quimper, visiting the famous Saint Corentin Cathedral, the art museum and take a stroll around the old town. Finally, we will pay a visit to the strange world of Univers du Poète Ferrailleur (The Universe of a Poet's Junkyard!), a fascinating place unlike anywhere else, featuring a series of automatons made from old household materials that can be activated by a series of buttons and levers.

We invite you to our first summer in the north-west of France, and the Celtic region of Brittany. We will be based in the beautiful, small central village of Mellionec, where we'll be staying in a large gite named A La Belle Etoile (The Beautiful Star). # Spooky in Transylvania

Go Beyond Goes Gothic

1st - 8th October 2025

Bram Stoker fired up our imaginations back in 1897 when he published his acclaimed novel, Dracula. He created a world inhabited by blood sucking vampires in gothic castles all in mysterious and sinister Transylvania. Count Dracula, thought to be based on the 15th Century Prince of Wallachia - Vlad the Impaler, was the notorious owner of a castle in Transylvania, near a small village called Bran. This is now reputed to be the dark home of Dracula.

This fascinating holiday will take you on a gothic tour of Transylvania, taking in two famous castles. Naturally, Dracula's dwelling in Bran, and also Cantacuzino Castle, where the recent supernatural Netflix series – Wednesday, based on the character Wednesday Adams from the Adams family, was filmed.

Whilst here, we will also explore the local city of Brasov, visiting the Black Church and communist museum, and take a cable car up to the nearby mountain for panoramic, spooky views over Transylvania. We will also have time to visit another landmark, Rasnov Castle, with its Dinosaur Park that houses 120 life sized dinosaurs. Transylvania is also famous for its Brown Bears, therefore we will be taken to a special hide accompanied by a qualified wildlife guide to watch these beautiful beasts in their native environment, the Carpathian Mountains.

We can't wait for you to join us on this haunting holiday as we have been expecting you!!

Holiday name: Spooky in Transylvania
Dates: 1st - 8th October 2025

Mamma Mia - Here we 'Go Beyond' again Go Beyond All Singing and All Dancing in Greece

10th - 17th October 2025

You Had a Dream – it was Mamma Mia. The 2008 musical film, set on a Greek island to the music of Abba, was a huge success. Over the years, our guests have told us how much they love this film and begging “Hey Go Beyond, Gimme! Gimme! Gimme! a ‘Mamma Mia’ themed holiday!” So, we are pleased to announce that the wait is finally over. We hope that this ‘all singing and dancing’ holiday is exactly what you’ve been looking for. The ‘Super Trouper’ itinerary begins up in the Greek mountains in Chania Pelion, where our hotel is based, The Manthos Mountain Resort and Spa. This luxurious hotel will give us the space we need to practise our Abba moves because, with help from a professional dance teacher, we will actually be singing and recreating scenes from the famous film! This will be over the first two days which will also include visits to the hotel spa and pool (of course!).

The middle part of the holiday will take us by ferry to Skolopos, the island where many of the well-known scenes from the film took place. We will be taken on a Mamma Mia guided tour of the island, visiting the locations so beloved by Abba fans. Then, we’ve an overnight stay at the Regina Hotel on the island, waking up to the glittering spectacle of the Aegean Sea.

The final two days will be spent dancing out more Mamma Mia favourites with a visit to Damouchari Beach, where one of the most famous scenes was shot. Why don't you ‘Take a Chance on Us’ for this unique holiday?

Holiday name: Mamma Mia – Here we Go Beyond Again
Dates: 10th - 17th October 2025
Nights: 7
Acomodation: Manthos Mountain Resort and Spa – Regina Hotel
Food: All food will be catered for by the hotels
Price: £3790 (All Inclusive)

Go Beyond Buddies

...with you all the way!

What's on your Bucket List?

Go Beyond Travel Buddy asks you to decide where you wish to go? Could it be something on your bucket list? A trip to see Italy? A weekend in Prague? Disneyland? Maybe an event like the Mardi Gras in Nice? The Northern Lights in Tromsø? A music festival in Portugal? The tulips in Amsterdam?

Maybe something closer to home? A one or two-day event like a fan club convention? A pop or rock concert? A TV series or film set you have always wanted to visit? A football match or sporting occasion?

Whatever is on your bucket list, Go Beyond can help you organise it and support you to get there and enjoy the experience.

Where....

do you want to go?

Offsetting our Carbon Footprint

We have taken action to tackle the carbon footprint that Go Beyond is responsible for each year. We met up with Lea Jacquot-Benson from Positively Touristing, who helps organisations within the tourist industry to calculate and offset their carbon emissions. We worked with Lea who has set down some guidelines for us to follow. Lea's plan enabled us to calculate our carbon footprint for 2025 and plan how much money we need to raise to donate to projects that are involved with Carbon Offsetting.

Local Project

As recommended by Positively Touristing, we have chosen a local partner, close to where Go Beyond directors, Anna and Ian live, in France. We will be working with the Parc Natural Régional du Verdon who will be using the money we raise to plant trees. This way will be able to visit and see for ourselves the progress that is made and, eventually, we hope to become involved with helping to plant trees.

How will we raise the funds?

The money you pay for your holiday will include a small amount that we will donate to the Parc Natural Régional de Verdon. Go Beyond will also contribute 50% towards monies raised by funds generated from guests purchasing holidays. The money collected in 2025 from the holidays you book, will be used to plant trees in the spring of 2026.

I hope you agree with us, that this is a small price to pay for our carbon emissions that are harmful to the environment that act as an accelerator to climate change. Together we can do our part.
